CAMP DIRECTOR
DR. JAY MARTIN

Super Soccer Camp is under the direction of Dr. Jay Martin. In addition to his duties at Ohio Wesleyan, he is also the editor of the Soccer Journal. How broad is Martin's record of service to soccer? Come up with any combination of level (high school, college, professional) and function (player, coach, administrator) and he's probably done it.

Consider the following:

- Martin's record in 34 years is 585-113-49
- 1998 NCAA DIII National Champion
- Is the fastest coach to 500 wins in NCAA soccer
- Competed in 31 NCAA Tournaments
- Two-time National Coach of the Year
- NCAA-record 15 Regional COY selections
- Reached 7 NCAA Tournament "Final Fours"
- Only active college coach in Ohio Soccer Hall of Fame

With all that he has achieved, Martin is most proud of contributing to Ohio Wesleyan's long tradition and consistency of success. Under Martin's leadership, the program has averaged 17 wins and only 3 losses a season over the last 34 years. He favors a skillfull, ball-controlled game, where movement off the ball is key, and rates his players as "first-class athletes and men."

SUPER SOCCER CAMP STAFF

The Super Soccer Camp Staff is committed to making sure each player develops while working hard and having fun. Our coach to player ratio of better than 1:8 ensures campers receive the individual attention they need and deserve.

Joining Dr. Jay Martin on the 2011 camp staff will be Ohio Wesleyan Men's Assistant Coaches Brandon Bianco and Drew Kaszubski. Additional staff members will include current OWU players, who come off a 19-2-2 2010 campaign and reached the NCAA Tournament "Elite Eight," as well as other hand-selected collegiate coaches and players.
